

Overview of the Child Outcome Summary Form (COSF): A Virtual Training

The COSF measures growth of positive social-emotional skills, acquisition of knowledge & skills and the use of appropriate behaviors using a 7-point scale. A team of individuals who are familiar with a child can consider multiple sources of information about his/her functioning. The COS process also allows early intervention and early childhood specialists to use data collected to drive appropriate instruction.

For more information contact:

Dr. Kay Smith

kay.smith@esc2.us

(361) 561-8514

This no cost training will provide key features of the COS process, essential knowledge needed to complete the COS form, how the 3 child outcomes are measured and how to document ratings and evidence used to support findings.

October 20, 2020

9:00 am - 12:00 pm

Workshop# 1645996

CLICK HERE TO REGISTER

Education Service Center, Region 2

209 North Water Street, Corpus Christi, Texas, 78401

www.esc2.net

